Welcome to the *Aromatic Goddess — a newsletter dedicated to creating and living an aromatic lifestyle.

I am excited you have found me. We have much good and joyous work to do.

This issue of the Aromatic Goddess quarterly (seasonal) newsletter is intended as an overview and a framework, encompassing all that I offer and do. This is intended as a supplement to more complete (and more frequently updated) information which can be found on my website at www.joanclark.com.

Each season a new Aromatic Goddess shall be made available, detailing articles, news on classes, product lines and more... across all areas of potential interest to you. You may find these archived on my website, and are invited to print/share/forward them to others who might find them of interest.

Whether you have come to my work by way of interest in the Goddess Aromaetica natural aromatherapy and complete lifestyle line of products, the Pet Alchemist line of natural petcare products, empowering classes and retreats for women, intuitive healing treatments/readings (in-person or long-distance), the Powerful Passionate Women of Peace newsletter, DoingIt! - a journal of positive living, the One World Flag or any of the growing number of tools and products introduced by myself and my husband... I hope you will take time to become familiar with some of the other offerings as well... as I feel all stem from the same creative source and intent to empower all of us.

Harvest Blessings!

The Goddess Aromaetica

My Goddess Apothecary— the foundation of the "Palais Aromaetica"— (literally, "House or Palace of All Things Aromatic") is a temple of plant spirit alchemy for the soul, created to inspire the connection between spirit and body, mind and emotions, soul and oneness.

The "Aromaetica" is a complete line of beautiful essential oils, intuitive and ceremonial blends, botanical tinctures, natural perfumes, alchemical elixirs and much more. Seasonally inspired products created in alignment with the cycles of the moon are sold in limited quantities. Quality is never sacrificed; intention is always infused into this sacred work; my clients are those who require this.

Custom blending and private labeling are available. An intuitive product selection for clients is also available each season.

Scent is the underrated sense. It is also evocative of some of the most vivid memories from our lives, and thus, of immense use in healing, moving past the past, on an into our imagined futures.

While my line is extensive, it isn't intended to intimidate. Through guidance and information interspersed throughout my website and elsewhere, you will be made to feel comfortable drawing scent into all areas of your life... in pursuit of your goals and dreams.

Divine Alchemy from the Goddess

The Pet*Alchemist– a specialty line of natural petcare products

Our goal is to provide the best natural solutions for your pet's health, grooming and pampering.

We started with creating natural products for our own pets. Our family and friends wanted some too, and voila— a wonderful line of products were created to keep pets feeling good, happy, healthy and pampered with the best that nature has to offer.

The goal of alchemy has always been to take raw material and change it into gold. Well that is our goal too— to make your pet's life the best it can be, by providing quality products that make your pets feel the best they can.

We hope your pets will enjoy being pampered, nurtured and assisted by the Pet*Alchemist.

Classes, Workshops, Annual Moon Goddess Retreat– a complete schedule for the empowerment of women

"I would rather teach a person how to find their joy, passion, creativity than anything else."

Throughout the year and across the country and beyond, I offer a complement of classes aimed at activating the sacred, divine feminine within you— encouraging you always to honor and act upon your inner wisdom, creativity, essence and beauty.

A highlight of the year is the annual Moon Goddess Retreat. If you haven't yet experienced time amongst a magnificent group of supportive women— in a safe and sacred environment of ritual, creativity, song, dance and play— what are you waiting for? This retreat is life-changing. The lasting friendships you will make, and the experience you will take away from this weekend, will send you back into your life fortified and excited.

The Powerful, Passionate Women for Peace Newsletter– free subscription

Each month on the new and full moon, I put out a free newsletter to any who wish to subscribe. This is done by way of following instructions given on the newsletters/writings page of my website.

How did this come about?–

When the war in Iraq broke out I wanted to do something to that would help to support the belief that Peace was possible.

One night in a dream I saw women all over the world gathering on the new and full moon— praying, chanting, lighting candles, singing songs, dancing and sending forth blessings of peace into the universe. The next day I wrote a letter to all the women I knew and asked if they would like to join me each new and full moon to send forth blessings of Peace into the world.

I promised that I would send them a monthly reminder each new and full moon and that I would share with them any information that I received or that I was given by other members in the circle. The rest is history.

Joan of Art– to create art is to experience the imagination of the Soul

A collection of paintings and other work dedicated to my Muse– "The Moon Goddess". It is a pleasure to share them with you. Here I hope you find something that speaks to your heart.

From intuited, channeled paintings, some including their own signature, "activating" fragrance... to sacred altars of all types... rattles... custom jewelry... and more, each of my pieces is intended to allow Spirit to pour forth and remind us of our interconnectedness.

Beauty is a lense through which you could say I view my world; and I hope my art inspires your individual creativity, by whatever means, to blossom.

We are part of all that is. We are a united life-force that flows and moves in sacred rhythms destined to merge, past, present and future. Linked, not separate from earth and heaven. Part of the moon, sun and stars. We are the sacred mysteries of the universe weaving stories of old and new.

Consultations, Intuitive Healing Treatments... and such

From the highest in me, to the highest in you, we invoke a number of tools and healing modalities in the right combination to facilitate you to where you wish to be.

My treatments are always intended to align the body, mind and spirit with the divine will of the soul; to bring forth the divine light where it has dimmed or been traumatized in some some way.

We work from a safe space in which you may shed what no longer serves you, and call in all that you need.

You will be coached as to how to assimilate your treatment. Often this includes the suggestion of blends to aid in the integration, and you may choose to purchase these or not.

The "B the Messenger" line of empowering Goddess clothing

One's power in the world begins with one's acceptance of oneself.

The "B the Messenger" clothing line is intended to serve as one more aspect of a conscious lifestyle— creating life through choice, not chance.

"Just as we want to take in only healthy food to fuel our bodies, we also want to feed our minds and emotions a steady diet of empow- ering thoughts; to cover our bodies with uplifting and self-healing messages in order to infuse them deeper into our being and, thus, to send them out with increasing conviction farther into the world."

With slogans such as "I Am What a Goddess Looks Like"— imagine the effect in the world of every woman seeing herself as I do— as one unique aspect of the divine feminine!

The Moon Goddess Oracle Deck—

worldly wisdom from everyday goddesses... like you!

One of the most symbolic manifestations of beginning to achieve the goals of my work - highlighting many diverse women coming together, working to release their "stuff" on behalf of themselves, their family, friends and the world at-large— is the release of the Moon Goddess Oracle Deck.

Over the course of two years of Moon Goddess Retreats, participants were guided through a process of deciding on a theme on which they wished to impart some wisdom. Each woman then created an original work of art. Portraits were taken. And this unique intuitive deck— trading cards for remarkable women, if you will— came to be.

The women you will meet in this deck are everyday Goddesses like yourself. They are your friends, neighbors, sisters; your wives, lovers, daughters, teachers, etc. These inspired and inspiring women look to support each other, and all of us, toward honoring the personal power and intuition within each of us, on the way to achieving all of our dreams and goals and bettering our world. Each is a modern Muse sharing the gifts of her wisdom, knowledge, experiences and heart truth. Each deck is packaged in a beautiful mesh bag and includes an insert detailing the work of each woman, with contact info.

Schedule an Oracle workshop in your area and become a piece of this legacy!

What to get for that special someone?— how about a Gift Certificate!

As we love to support the creations of others, so do we hope you will be enthused about our products, creations and services.

You may order gift certificates in any amount and have them sent to you, or directly to the intended recipient.

Gift certificates are good on anything featured in this flyer or on our websites.

Give the gift of empowerment!

In addition to products and services unique to me, I work with my husband and partner on other offerings, and support his creative and intentiona work as well.

Of these, we feel the following projects are of an especially high caliber; and capable of helping to hold and increase a higher vision on the planet.

DoingIt!– a journal of positive living

From our highest to yours this monthly subscription magazine/newsletter, is packed with original writing, special features, interviews, exercises... all aimed at injecting something positive into your life each month.

The One World Flag– an international symbol of diversity

ers for its mission statement, purpose, and widesweeping inspirational effect.
