Welcome to the Aromatic Goddess.

Goddess Blessings to each of you and a Happy Spring!

Can you believe it? Spring is finally here; and what a way to start it off– with Venus in retrograde. Are you ready for a “Venus Rebirth”?

I know many people think retrogrades are uncomfortable times, but personally I love retrogrades– because they allow us the opportunity to pull back, regroup and take time to get centered in what matters to us before we move forward again.

Venus rules the divine feminine– woman. It rules perfume and all things aromatic. It rules sensuality, intimacy, romance, and a woman’s sense of style. Venus rules earthly pleasures, spending, our attitude toward finances and material possessions.

Venus rules love– self-love, romantic love, lovers and how we experience our own sensuality and intimacy. Venus is Aphrodite– the Goddess of Love.

So I can’t think of a more wonderful moment in time than to indulge yourself in a little aromatic magic to awaken your inner Venus to rebirth her essence.

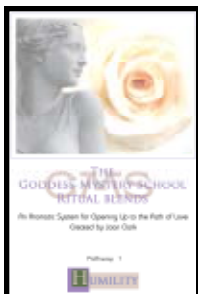

Anointing and perfuming the body is an art form for women who truly understand the power of scent and its ability to draw things to you and also take you to altered states of consciousness where you can dance with the divine beauty of the sacred self.

Adorning yourself with fragrances, body oils, anointing blends and using plant spirit essences to awaken your inner alchemy is a wonderful practice to incorporate into your daily aromatic lifestyle.

We at the Goddess Aromaetica await your presence. We invite you to meander around and get in touch with what your inner Venus needs at this time in your life.

I think it will be interesting if each of us take some quiet moments and ask—What is Venus the Goddess of Love asking me to awaken, empower and shine forth more of this year? Then make it a point to allow some aromatic blessings to assist you in this self discovery process.

Joan

The Goddess Aromaetica: highlighting Melissa for the Season of Spring

Self-love, acceptance and honoring your own beauty, sensuality and unique talents and abilities are powerful magnets that can draw to you the desires of your heart.

When you are aware of your connection to the divine feminine in you— you become a receiving channel; and there is nothing more powerful than a woman who knows and understands how to use her energy and power wisely.

This season there are some fantastic essential oils and plants spirit energies to assist you in awakening your Venus qualities— like rosewood, geranium, sandalwood and an ocean of lemon-scented beauties. However, the one plant spirit medicine that the Goddess that has been calling me to work with her on a spiritual level this spring is Melissa Officinalis.

Yes, it is an expensive oil, but you are investing in yourself. As women who are self-enlightened we want to invest our money wisely and not just spend it. Trust me— Melissa Officinalis is a wise investment for any woman who truly wants to explore the depths of her heart/mind/spirit connection and rebirth her Venus essence as well.

You don't need a lot of Melissa to be able to understand the gifts she offers us for empowering our own magic and intuitive heart alchemy.

You can work with a few drops of Melissa blended into a carrier oil so you can afford her. Melissa, this season, is offering us the opportunity to work with awakening the heart essence of the divine feminine so we can truly be at one with the Goddess of Love inside of us.

It think it is just fabulous how everything in the universe lines up to support our spiritual awakenings and blessings.

Melissa has a way of moving us deeper into the core of our authentic being. It wraps its sweet loving arms around you and asks, "Hey— where are you going? What are you running away from or to? What are you hiding deep inside of you that needs to come forth— be released— so you can come home to the amazing beauty of your authentic self?"

She is the keeper of the heart— the High Priestess at the doorway of your heart encouraging you to— drop the illusions of who you think you are and visit the truth of who you truly are.

She will take you into the temple inside yourself, stand you in front of the mirror and gently— one breath at a time— help you to release all the stuff that has been attached to you, that has kept you from truly understanding your own heart path, and how self judgment and criticism has affected your ability to truly love yourself just the way you are.

She will remove the cobwebs that have surrounded your sense of self, your connection to life, your body, your sensuality, your beauty and she will sprinkle you with a new sense of truth.

She may ask you to spend a bit more this season on your aromatic blessings but it will be worth every cent as you remember the grace and wisdom that comes from knowing oneself.

Working with Melissa in all of her different forms— from the essential oil, tincture, tea, to the hydrosol— can only empower your spiritual journey this spring. You choose which medium is calling you.

Melissa Essential Oil – 5 ml - $65.00
 Melissa in Jojoba – 5 ml - $35.00
 Melissa Hydrosol – 4 oz - $22.00
 Melissa Tea – 4 oz - $16.00
 Melissa Tincture – 1 oz - $35.00

Other Aromatic Tinctures for Spring:

Lemongrass, Dandelion, Red Clover— which are excellent for cleansing and detoxifying the system. 1 oz bottles - $35.00

Spring Seasonal Anointing Oil

Kundalini Rising. She is rising, she is rising— the Goddess is rising up! A beautiful anointing oil for awakening the divine feminine – and the kundalini life force within. $45.00

New Body Balms Parfums

Hummingbird Priestess, Jasmine, Rose, Divine Timing, Sandalwood Sanctuary. Try these you will love them. They are creamy, luscious parfum balms that you can use as a perfume or an anointing balm. I love putting a little in my hair as well. These blends are extremely fragrant and addictive. One of my best sellers this year. They make great Goddess gifts. Small tin - $12.50 – Large Tin - $24.00

* Conscious Spending and Investing vs. Unconscious Buying ****

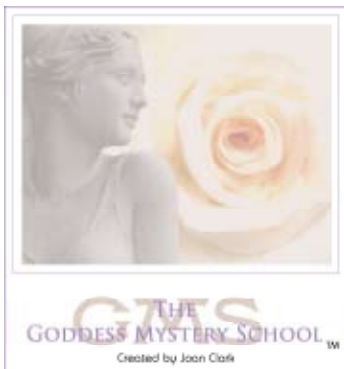

I believe conscious spending and buying is imperative for all of us right now.

I believe as strongly that we maintain our authentic vibration and not forget, drop down and begin resonating in the fear of the collective consciousness, which at times threatens to display itself as mob mentality. Toward the end of maintaining our Truth I continue to encourage all of us to continue using our tools.

I tell my clients all the time that I would rather have them work with one essential oil or anointing oil and one aromatic tincture each season and really get to know a few plants intimately than to purchase a whole bunch of products and never truly develop a relationship with them.

I encourage you to listen to what plant spirits are calling you. Purchase what speaks to your heart and really allow these to assist your spiritual growth this spring— as well as rejuvenate your body, mind and spirit. These are your tools for transformation. And a little can go a long way.

The Goddess Mystery School™ teachings: a New Body of Work, Accessing a Whole New Level of Conscious Healing

I just returned from a fabulous week-end in New Jersey exploring and sharing the GMS Teachings for the first time.

The weekend was filled with such power, magic and healing. And we were all divinely intoxicated not only with the teachings, but with the plant spirit medicines-- the entire new line of Goddess Mystery School Blends™-- that helped us awaken to our own sacred truths.

I fell more deeply in love and more passionate about teaching this body of work. I truly believe this is the next level of healing and expanding consciousness via aromatherapy. A complete system!

If anyone is truly interested in empowering their own connection to the divine feminine and awakening their own divinity more this is a perfect class to attend or sponsor.

Here's what people are saying about the GMS™:

Dearest Joan, All I can say is wow. I am so humbled and in awe of what we experienced at the GMS. Now I really do feel like a goddess – I did not before. I am still processing deeply, and reentry was and is interesting. My days have been overall peaceful, as I have remembered to invite my guides in every day and have gone to bed with them every night! The world looks and feels different, and I feel different in it.

It has taken a few times for me write to you. The right words weren't coming. Your program is needed everywhere. Spread your light, the world will be better for it. I feel supported in the knowledge that our sacred circle spins on, and that it just gets, incredibly, better as the years go on. I can see us all meeting, in the future, in our 80's and 90's, still doing it.

Joan of Art-- give the gift of he"ART"

Add your own Creativity into the Making of your own Customized Bottles. I love making beautiful bottles for my perfumes and anointing oils. It's so easy to do. This spring get some old bottles, paint them, put ribbons on them, crystals, etc. and then....make an aromatic par-fleur to put in them (see suggestion below).

Hand-Crocheted Goddess Prayer Shawls-- a blessing in every stitch. Crocheting these prayer shawls has become an amazing meditation for me. As someone orders a shawl I just get guided to the right colors, and the yarn then guides me what stitches to use.

Please consider treating yourself or a beloved friend to one. Prices range from $175-300+.

New!-- Par-fleur Base-- foundation for your own Aromatic Masterpiece

I love making botanical par-fleurs and one of the best ways I like to make them is by having a fun base to put my essential oils into.

This season why not try creating a par-fleur blend from a base of lilac, sweet grass, amber, lavender, or rose tinctures along with your botanical alcohol. It is a delightful, fun and easy way to create your own great masterpiece, and an excellent way to take your own "private" collection of aromatic signature scents to a new level.

15 ml tincture - $22.50

1 oz tincture - $45.00

The Pet*Alchemist-- a specialty line of natural petcare products

A happy pet is healthy pet and a healthy pet has a strong immune system.

Support your pet's immune system this season by using products that support your pet naturally.

Spring is the time to begin using products that can assist with flea and other infestations that can come forth. Check out our Pet Alchemist Page to see what products we have that will nurture and bless your pets this spring season.

Viva La France!– 6th Annual Moon Goddess Retreat– September, 2009

The Goddess Retreat this year has been scheduled to take place in the South of France September 12th -19th. I am very excited about taking our retreat to this amazing and sacred area this year.

The trip will be limited to a small group of women– since I want to allow those who have worked with the Goddess Mystery School Teachings to be a part of this first gathering in Europe. So I encourage anyone who is truly interested to contact me so I can put you on the list.

A $500.00 (non-refundable deposit) will be required upon enrollment for the retreat. More details of the itinerary will be posted within the next 2 weeks on my website.

September is a beautiful time in France and exploring the path of the Goddess this year with each of you will be an amazing blessing.

Powerful, Passionate Women for Peace

Peace even in the face of reality– or isn't that the biggest illusion????

So many things are changing in the world around us and as PPW4P– we have to be vigilant on where we place our thoughts and energy. Where we sow our consciousness is where we will reap it as well.

This spring I encourage you to throw a Peace Party and make a vision board of Peace Affirmations that will assist you in holding this vision for Peace more and more each day.

Goddess Gifts!

Don't forget to grace your Goddess Friends with Goddess Gifts this season.
